

Wage-Hour Issues For Employees Alachua County Unpaid Overtime Attorney Experienced In Wage-Hour Issues

If you are a loyal, productive employee who has not been accurately credited for overtime work you have performed, an injustice has occurred in the workplace that must be corrected in your favor. An experienced employment law attorney can help you make things right again.

My name is Carla D. Franklin, and I have been representing employees in communities such as Gainesville and Ocala for nearly 30 years. I am the lawyer you should contact for aggressive plaintiff representation when negligence, oversight or willful disregard of hourly wages is alleged.

Have you lost out on wages that you legitimately earned? Call 352-376-1384 or toll free 866-895-8362 today to arrange your initial consultation.

Dedicated Representation And Personal Service For Your Unpaid Overtime Dispute

These are just a few of the allegations that arise during representation of employees in contentious wage-hour disputes:

- An employee's worker classification is misused in order to avoid paying overtime wages.
- An employee is compelled to perform duties considered off the clock.
- An employer refuses compensation for so-called preparation time.
- A salary has been paid to nonexempt employees in order to avoid committing to overtime.
- An employee receives pay that is less than the legal minimum wage.

You Need A Gainesville Wage And Hour Attorney You Can Trust — Call Today

Reach me, lawyer Carla D. Franklin, by calling toll free to 866-895-8362. Your e-mail or fax message is welcome and will be responded to promptly. Evening meeting appointments are available on request.